South Lake Hospital welcomes first baby of the New Year

Clermont, Fla. – South Lake Hospital’s Centre for Women’s Health welcomed its first baby of the New Year at 11:05 a.m. on January 1, 2010.

The baby boy, Caleb Faircloth, weighed in at 7 lbs., 7 ounces and is 20 ³/₄ inches long. All are doing well and enjoying their time together on the New Year holiday.

This is the first child for parents Justin and Alana Faircloth, of Inverness, Fla. It is also the family’s first grandson.

The baby was delivered by Mary Beth Lewis, M.D. The Faircloth’s received a welcome basket filled with newborn necessities and gifts from community donations and South Lake Hospital.

The Centre for Women’s Health offers labor and delivery services as well as diagnostic imaging services for women including digital mammography, 4-D ultrasound, bone densitometry and stereotactic breast biopsies.

South Lake Hospital is a not-for-profit acute care community hospital, in partnership with Orlando Health. South Lake Hospital has been providing quality healthcare services to the South Lake County for over 60 years.
